

ZCL Composites Inc. Declares A Change in Year End

For Immediate Release

Edmonton, Alberta February 15, 2006. .. ZCL Composites Inc. (TSX: ZCL) (the “Company”) announced today that effective April 1, 2006, it is changing the date of its financial year end from March 31 to December 31. The change in financial year end allows the Company to have its year end coincide with that of other companies involved in the oil and gas industry.

The current fiscal year will end March 31, 2006. The following fiscal year will end after nine months, December 31, 2006. The December 31, 2006 year end will include a comparison to its nine month financial results with the twelve months ended, March 31, 2006.

In 2007, the twelve months ended December 31, 2007 will include a comparison to its financial results with the nine months ended December 31, 2006.

Notes to the financial statements will include explanations and reconciliations indicating how these transition years would have resulted using twelve month comparisons.

ZCL Composites Inc. trades on the Toronto Stock Exchange under the symbol “ZCL” and is Canada’s largest manufacturer of fiberglass underground storage tanks. ZCL’s complete fuel storage systems marketed under the “Prezerver” trademark carry a $2 million warranty against pollution.
