

For Immediate Release

Edmonton, Alberta September 21, 2005 – ZCL Composites Inc. (TSX:ZCL) (the “Company”) announced today Mr. Tony Barlott has advised that he will be resigning as the Vice President Finance, Chief Financial Officer and Corporate Secretary of the Company. Mr. Barlott has accepted an offer to become the President of an Edmonton based private company. Mr. Barlott will continue to perform his duties as Vice President Finance and Chief Financial Officer while he and ZCL work towards finding a mutually acceptable final date for ending his employment. This will allow the Company sufficient time to locate a suitable replacement and such search for a new candidate has commenced.

Mr. Barlott, who has been with ZCL for over nine years, stated, “I have thoroughly enjoyed my time with the Company as it continues through some very exciting growth. I have been privileged to work with many dedicated and talented fellow employees at ZCL. At this stage in my career, I very much look forward to my new opportunities and challenges. I wish the Company continued success in the future.”

“On behalf of ZCL’s Board of Directors and all its employees, we would like to thank Mr. Barlott for his tireless efforts and dedication to the Company. He always passionately and selflessly advanced ZCL’s interests in everything he did. We wish Mr. Barlott continued success in the future as he moves forward with a new career path,” said Venence G. Côté, President & CEO.

ZCL Composites Inc. trades on the Toronto Stock Exchange under the symbol “ZCL” and is Canada's largest manufacturer of composite liquid storage systems. ZCL’s complete fuel storage systems marketed under the “Prezerver” trademark carry a $2 million warranty against pollution.
